June 2007

Dr John Moulder donated a digital audio recording station. All interviews conducted at the ICRR 2007 in San Francisco were recorded with this new equipment October 2007

Dr Mary Helen Barcellos-Hoff donated another set of digital audio recording station for the Podcast team in Berkeley, California. This was done under the NSCOR funding (NASA Specialized Center of Research) of Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory as part of the Education and Outreach effort from NASA. More space biology educative links can be found here.

If you would like to help us purchasing equipment to reach better audio quality standards, you could consider a tax-free donation. For information, please email admin@radres.org
